Glinting gold thread picked out for the detail against crisp white silk, perfect.

Cornflower blue, the colour scheme for these Bridesmaids dresses, the Flower girl's sash and Page Boy's waistcoat . . .

. . . continuing through to the Groom's waistcoat
for a very harmonious Bridal group!

The fine silk satin of this dress falls beautifully, flowing as the Bride moves, in this stunning fitted design.

Fifties style fun!

An emerald green accent colour for the detail lifts the design, giving it a fresh and fun feeling.

Simple, chic halterneck design with pleating to one side of the waist and hips, creating a classic silhouette.

Sumptuous fabrics echo the grand surroundings of St. Albans Cathedral.

Edging the Bride's veil with crystals, also in the detail on her dress; Making the Mother of the Bride's jacket, and adapting her bag to match; Creating the Groom's waistcoat and all the mens accessories; gives a uniformity to the overall look of the Bridal group.

A detail from the Bridesmaids dresses applied to the Groom's waistcoat and tie, enhances the lavender colour scheme.

A Guipure lace overlay to this Thai silk dupion adds beautiful detail to a traditional design.

Embroidered button detail for a perfect Valentine's Day Wedding.

A simple flower detail run throughout the wedding party, adds a special sparkle to each outfit.

Overlaying a luxurious red silk with a delicate cream lace adds drama to this Wedding dress.

Flowing lines and luxurious fabric add glamour to this striking dress.

Using the same design details across all the dresses, creates a unified look and feel on your big day.

An embroidered fabric brings both colour and added interest to a dress.

Classic dress, exotic location, ruby red details.

Taking your accent colour into the sashes of smaller Bridesmaids, never fails to look pretty.

A fairytale dress for a fairytale day.

The ideas you have for your own Wedding Dress will differ from those you have seen here.

Let me create your individual bespoke gown, and make them
a reality for you.
